

Year 1 History Knowledge Organiser: Homes from the Past

Vocabulary
	after later than something before earlier than somebody/something: in the past during all through a period of time similarities Likeness, the state of being similar to somebody/something but not exactly the same differences the way in which two people or things are not like each other past having happened or gone by at an earlier time present existing or happening now: current technology machinery and devices developed from scientific knowledge timeline a list of important events

Read all about it

Key Knowledge

1. A lot of things have changed since our grandparents and parents were young.
2. People that are older than me, were born before. People that are younger than me, were born after me.
3. Times were slightly different when my parents/carers were little. Times were very different when my grandparents were little.
4. Technology has changed the way people live their everyday lives. It's present in almost everything we do, from how we communicate to how

Year 1 History Knowledge Organiser: Nurturing Nurses

Vocabulary

	The Crimean War	A war between Russia and England, France and Turkey that began in 1854
	World War 1	A famous war from 1914-1918. Lots of European countries were involved including Britain, France and Germany wounded	To be hurt or have an injury overcrowded	There are lots of people in a small space.
	medicine	Something used to treat disease, injury, pain or other symptoms
	battlefield	An area where a battle happens disease	Something that causes harm to your health hygiene	Keeping clean so you can stay healthy.
	traitor	A person who helps the enemy

Read all about it

Key Knowledge

1. Florence Nightingale was a British nurse who helped wounded soldiers in the Crimean War.
2. Mary Seacole was a British-Jamaican lady who helped wounded soldiers in the Crimean War.
3. Edith Cavell was a British nurse who cared for soldiers on both sides during WW1. She was killed in 1917 by the German army.
4. Florence Nightingale opened a nursing school. Mary Seacole and Edith Cavell were both role models for nurses.

